Under the guidance of experienced instructors and parents, the Life Mission team will present a full program of authentic yoga practices, lessons from the Indian Scriptures, and cultural values in a natural ashram setting in Mebane, NC. This year, the camp theme will focus on children inquiring about their own personal path in life as told in the scriptures.

Daily schedule includes yoga class, morning classes on personal growth, stories from Indian Culture, and discussions on how to maintain a youthful spirit through life, afternoon workshops in Indian cooking, arts and crafts, sports, and then an evening campfire with skits.

Attendees should bring comfortable clothing for yoga and other sports. All bedding and towels will be provided.

Notify Ashram staff of any food allergies or medication use as part of the registration process. If you have specific health questions, please call ahead of the program Vidyacharya is a physician and will be on site during the camp. The camp will be conducted in compliance with all current Covid-19 requirements of the State of North Carolina.
